IN THE UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT KEENAN G. CASADY, CLERK
FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA U.S. Bankruptcy Court-Santa Rosa

In re

GERALD ARMSTRONG,

No. 95-10911

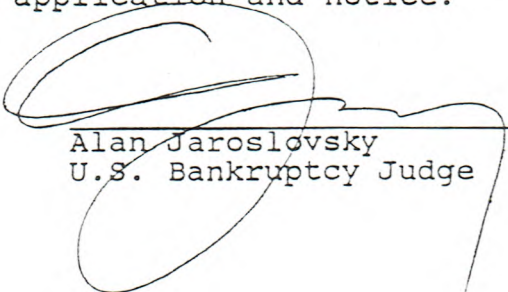

Debtor.

ORDER ON LETTER APPLICATION

On this date, the court received a letter from attorney Andrew H. Wilson requesting modification of the standard discharge in this case. While the request seems completely meritless, and evidences lack of understanding of the difference between an objection to discharge under section 727 of the Bankruptcy Code and a determination of dischargeability under section 523, the court has no intention of ruling on a letter. Wilson shall immediately do the following:

1. Inform all persons who received a copy of the letter that the court considers it an improper request.
2. Serve a copy of this order on all persons who received a copy of the letter and file a proof of such service; and
3. Refrain from any further attempt to obtain an order from the court except by proper application and notice.

Dated: March 17, 1997

Alan Jaroslovsky
U.S. Bankruptcy Judge

Re: In re Gerald Armstrong
Case No. 95-10911AJ
Our File No. SCI02-019

Dear Judge Jaroslovsky:

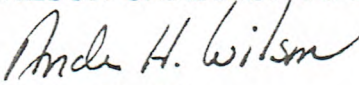

I write with respect to the Chapter 7 Discharge Of Debtor entered of March 7, a copy of which was recently received by this office and which is attached for your convenience.

Although the order recites that no adversary proceeding was filed (or that any objection raised was not sustained), an adversary proceeding was in fact filed by this office on behalf of our client The Church of Scientology International ("CSI") and, on February 6, 1996, your Honor issued a Memorandum of Decision, which held that CSI was entitled to enforce the permanent injunction which it had procured against Mr. Armstrong. A copy of the Memorandum of Decision and the subsequent Judgment After Adversary Proceeding Trial are enclosed for your convenience.

We would appreciate the Court issuing an order correcting the March 7, 1997 order. We have taken the liberty of preparing such an order and enclose an original and four copies. If you feel that entering such an order is appropriate, we would appreciate your executing it and returning conformed copies in the envelope provided.

Very truly yours,

WILSON CAMPILONGO LLP

Re: In re Gerald Armstrong

Our File No. SCI02-019

Dear Judge Jaroslovsky:

I write at your request to confirm your telephone call to me of today, March 17, 1997. You stated that you would not act on my letter request of March 13, 1997, because it was (1) not submitted properly by application or motion; and (2) "meritless" and unnecessary. You also asked me if I had read your Memorandum of Decision and told me to submit a formal application if I still wanted the matter considered.

My apologies for not submitting my request by formal application or motion. I will again read your Memorandum of Decision and reconsider whether to approach the Court for additional relief.

Very truly yours,
